Sir,

SUBJECT: Formation of a new Ministry in Mysore State.

I am directed to state that, consequent on the dissolution of the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council and coming into existence of a new House of Legislature, viz., Legislative Assembly with effect from the 16th December 1949 and in view of the need for the constitution of a Ministry responsible to the new Legislature, the Hon'ble Sri K. Chengalaraya Reddy, Chief Minister, tendered the resignations of himself and of his colleagues to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore on the 15th December 1949. His Highness was pleased to call upon the Hon'ble Sri K. Chengalaraya Reddy and his colleagues to continue in their respective offices till such time as a Ministry responsible to the new Legislature was duly constituted and appointed.

Meanwhile, owing to the inauguration of the Constitution of India w.e.f. 26.1.50, the Ministry that was in office before the commencement of the Constitution continued to function till steps were completed for the formation of the new Ministry. In these circumstances, the Hon'ble Sri K.Chengalaraya Reddy, Chief Minister tendered afresh the resignations of himself and of his colleagues of their respective offices as Ministers on Sunday the 5th February 1950. His Highness the Maharaja having accepted the resignations, appointed the Hon'ble Sri K.Chengalaraya Reddy, as Chief

Minister and on his advice, the following gentlemen to serve on the Council of Ministers:

1. Sri H.C. Dasappa
2. " K.T. Bhashyam Iyengar
3. " T. Siddalingiah
4. " H. Siddaiya
5. " T. Mariappa
6. " R. Chennigaramiah

His Highness administered the oaths of office and Secrecy to the new Ministers on the afternoon of Sunday, the 5th Jan. 1950.

I am to forward herewith, for information, copies of ~~the~~ a Gazette Extraordinary issued on the 5th February 1950 and ~~a~~ a Press Note released on the same date.

Yours faithfully,
